

INTRODUCTION
TO THE

HEBER VALLEY POW WOW

Wednesday, March 2nd

7:00 p.m.

Wasatch High School Auditorium

Native American Dancers in Traditional Dress*

Drum Groups*

Indian Culture Taught by Nola Lodge, Professor of Indian Culture at the U of U*

Question and Answer Period - If you have any questions concerning the Pow Wow and its impact on Heber Valley plan to attend the first of three seminars*

FREE ADMISSION
EVERYONE WELCOME

*Gene Kinsel
1967*

Brenda Casper hit three straight free throws to cut the Tiger lead to 11-10. Hurricane came back with five unanswered points to take a six-point lead. Wasatch responded with a drive down the lane and scored again. The lady Wasps tried tough to make the score 18-16. The Tigers came on strong as they ran off several unanswered points to take a 10-point lead.

Julie Mair was the only player who could break into the scoring column again as she grabbed a rebound and put it back in the hoop to cut the lead to eight. Hurricane hit the more bucket to end the first half holding a 26-16 lead.

The second half started off strong for the Wasps as Casper and Mair went to work and started finding the basket. They cut the lead back to five points at 28-23. The officials let the teams get a little out of hand as they missed several crucial calls that seemed to work against the Wasps.

The Tigers marched to the foul line where they hit five straight free throws to take a 10-point margin. The game became a nip-and-tuck affair after that as the teams traded point for point. The third half ended with the Tigers holding on to a 41-30 lead.

Hurricane began the fourth period with a quick hoop to go ahead 43-33. Stefanie Gappmayer rebounded with a big rebound and put it in the hoop to cut the lead. Brenda Gappmayer got into the action as she, too, hauled in a rebound and put it back up and in to cut the score 43-34.

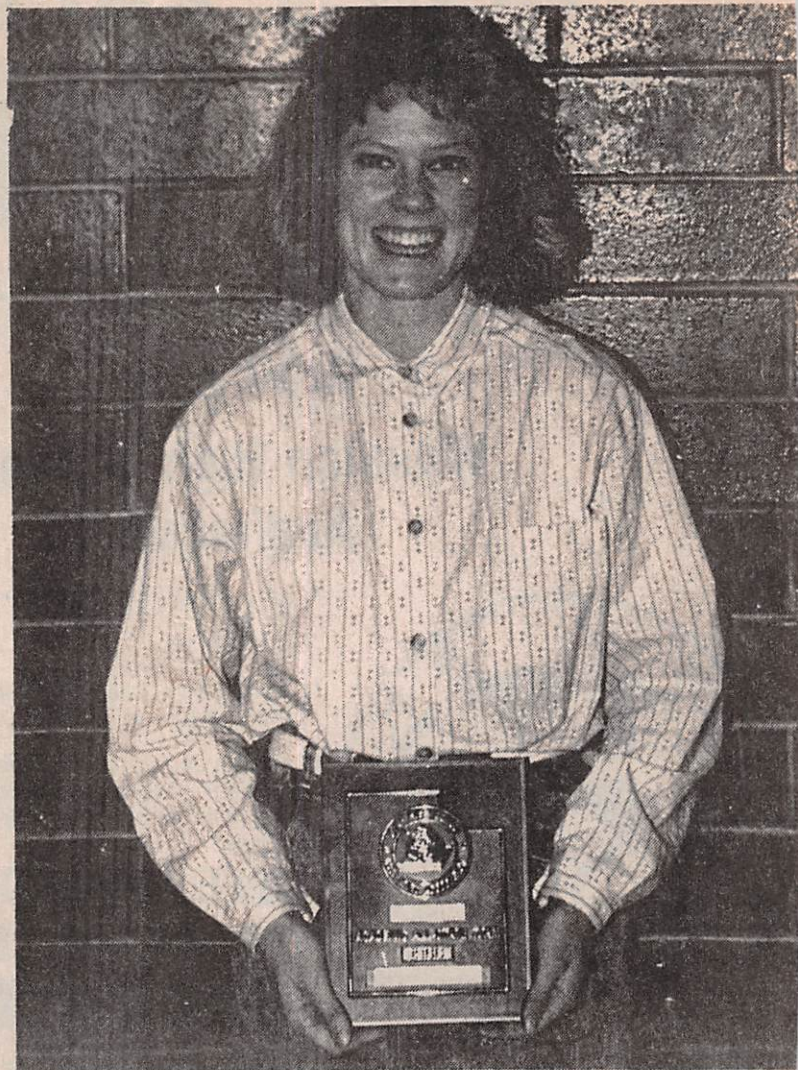

The lady Wasps continued to battle against the very physical Tigers as they kept the game at the point spread. Heather Webster was good from the foul line as she hit the Tigers' free throws. Brenda Casper and Julie Mair added the points only to have Hurricane respond with several scores of their Julie Mair, Heather Webster, and Hollie Webster got into the action as they hit the hoop and gave the Wasps a 22-10 lead. Grantsville tried to come back as they cut the lead to four at 22-18. Julie Mair and Brenda Casper built the margin back to eight to end the first half with a 26-18 lead.

The second half started out with the lady Wasps showing the Cowboys how to play ball as they came out strong. Brenda Casper, Stefanie Gappmayer, and Sharilyn Horner for their leadership and talent. Coach Tolley said that he would miss them greatly in the future. He further noted that he wished they could have been playing in the championship game, but they had the misfortune of meeting the team from Hurricane in the second round.

Hurricane won the state championship as they defeated Lehi in the final game by a score of 56-40. Ten teams from Region IX placed well overall as they had four teams placed in the top six in the state.

Sharilyn Horner was chosen to the 1988 Academic All-Star team in the 2A division last weekend. Only ten girls in the entire 2A receive such recognition. Sharilyn has a 3.9 gpa at Wasatch High.